15. Ways I can contribute to my alma mater

14 responses

Study

Xyz

By being a student .

Promote on social media and donation on program

I can contribute to my alma mater by guiding current students with my recent experiences and helping with any alumni events or activities. I can also stay connected and promote the college wherever possible

Love to an ex donbosco student

College should invite alumni for the discussion for the progress of their respective department. After knowing about the situation of our Department we will contribute accordingly. Whether it may be financially, physically or mentally but college should create a sense of unity among students.

College

Anytime whenever require I involve

No

By being a good alumni and will try to contribute anything necessity if possible in near future

Dont memorize the concept just understand it in your own way

How to self study in a way that will help in further studies or further courses

No idea 💡
