INTRODUCTION TO ONE-DAY WORKSHOP

The NAAC Accreditation is a significant benchmark for higher education institutions in terms of quality, recognition, and accountability. It plays an important role in securing government funding, research opportunities, enhancing institutional reputation, and attracting more students as well as qualified faculty. Therefore, to create awareness and equip the higher education institutions in the state with knowledge about the NAAC's new framework, and NAAC preparedness, a one-day workshop on the theme "Understanding NAAC's New Binary Accreditation Framework" is organized.

OBJECTIVES

The objectives of the Workshop includes:

- Awareness on NAAC's New Binary Accreditation Framework.
- Guidance on documentation strategies and evidence management.
- Clarity on technical processes such as application, submission, file uploads, and others.
- Preparedness for the NAAC Accreditation.
